ACR Accreditation Statement:

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint providership of the American College of Radiology and RAD-AID International. The American College of Radiology is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation Statement:

Physicians:

The American College of Radiology designates this activity for a maximum of 7.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Technologists:

The American College of Radiology is approved by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) as a Recognized Continuing Education Evaluation Mechanism (RCEEM) to sponsor and/or review Continuing Medical Educational programs for Radiologic Technologists and Radiation Therapists. The American College of Radiology designates this educational activity as meeting the criteria for up to 9 Category A credit hours of the ARRT.

Nurses

This continuing nursing education activity was approved by the Virginia Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation for 8 contact hours of Continuing Nursing Education (CNE)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR RECEIVING CME CREDITS:

Participants in RAD-AID Conference seeking CME (Physicians, Technologists and Sonographers) will be receiving the credits via email. You will receive an email asking you to verify your credits. If you would like to receive the credit verification email at a different email address than the one you entered for conference registration, then please email Jason Lee at conference@rad-aid.org.

Nurses are required to participate in the entire program and complete and submit the Conference evaluation form in order to receive nursing contact hours. A certificate will be provided at the end of the conference with submission of the conference evaluation form.
